

Australian Government
International Air Services Commission

Instrument of Delegation

We, John Martin, Michael Lawriwsky and Stephen Lonergan, Commissioners of the International Air Services Commission, pursuant to the power given to the Commission by section 27AB of the International Air Services Commission Act 1992 (the Act), hereby delegate the following powers to the Executive Director International Air Services Commission or in his or her absence to the Senior Adviser, International Air Services Commission:

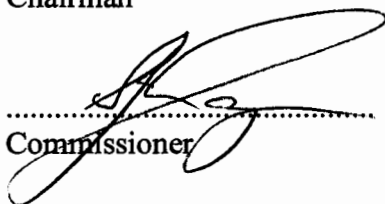

1. to make a determination allocating available capacity under section 7 of the Act, if no more than 1 application is made for the capacity; and
2. to make a fresh determination allocating capacity under section 8 of the Act.

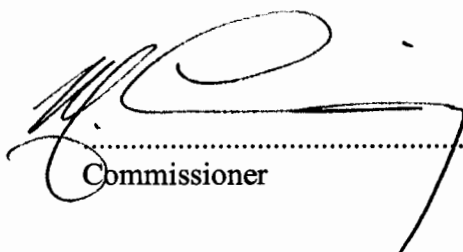

In addition, if an Australian carrier applies under section 21 of the Act for a variation of a determination to allocate capacity under subsection 10(2) of the Act, then providing no submission is received objecting to the allocation or if we consider it unlikely that an objection will be made, we delegate the following powers:

3. to conduct a review of a determination under subsection 10(2) of the Act; and
4. to vary a determination as requested in the application.

Dated ^{27th} November 2003

.....
Chairman

.....
Commissioner

.....
Commissioner