International Air Services Commission

DECISION

Decision: [2008] IASC 213
Revocation of: [2007] IASC 104
The Route: United States
The Applicant: V–Australia Airways Limited
(ACN 125 580 823) (V–Australia)
Public Register: IASC/APP/200814

1 The application

1.1 V–Australia applied to the Commission on 31 July 2008 to revoke, pursuant to section 27AA of the International Air Services Commission Act 1992 (the Act), Determination [2007] IASC 104, which allocates capacity on the South Pacific route between Australia and the United States under the Australia – United States air services arrangements.

1.2 The application was made pursuant to V–Australia’s application of 16 July 2008 for an allocation of unlimited passenger and cargo capacity and frequency on the route – see Determination [2008] IASC 110. That application followed changes to the air services arrangements between Australia and the United States, which removed restrictions on capacity, frequency and routes.

1.3 Material supplied by the applicant is filed on the Register of Public Documents.

2 Delegate's consideration

2.1 In accordance with section 27AB of the Act and regulation 3A of the International Air Services Commission Amendment Regulations 2003 (No.1), the delegate of the Commission considers the V–Australia application.

2.2 If an Australian carrier asks the Commission to revoke a determination, the Commission must make a decision revoking the determination (section 27AA(3) of the Act).

3 Decision [2008] IASC 213

3.1 In accordance with section 27AA of the Act, the delegate, on behalf of the Commission, revokes Determination [2007] IASC 104.
